

James Kardaras

Jim has been a member of the Parish Council from 2000 to 2006, and 2007 to present, and has previously served on its Executive Committee as Corresponding Secretary.

He has served as a coach for the St. Andrew Junior and Senior Boys GOYA Basketball teams.

Jim chaired the Public Relations Team for the St. Andrew 40th Anniversary Committee.

He is currently an Underwriting Director for Management Liability & Specialty Lines at Nationwide Insurance Company, in New York City.

James has experience in underwriting at the largest insurers, as well as insurance brokerage with the largest insurance brokerage firm, Marsh & McLennan Companies, where he served as Center of Excellence nationally and globally regarding Fidelity / Fraud & Electronic Crime insurance, and Special Risk. James also has experience in handling Management & Professional Liability insurance lines (Directors & Officers, Errors & Omissions, Fiduciary, Employment Practices), Kidnap/Ransom & Extortion, Trade Credit, and Commercial & Contract Surety.

Jim received his Bachelor of Science degree in Economics from New York University in 1983, and attended New York Law School from 1983-1985.

He has resided in Morristown for 25 years, and currently resides in Englewood. He has three children – Eric, a senior at Rutgers University, Liana, a freshman at Rutgers University, and Faith, a freshman at Ohio State University. All of them attended Sunday School at St. Andrew, with Eric also having been a member of GOYA and the boys' basketball team.

Jim participates in the Risk & Insurance Management Society (NY and NJ); the Professional Liability Underwriting Society, and the New York University Alumni Association.

