

Nicholas Monokandilos:

Nick was born in Campbell, Ohio and moved to Kalymnos, Greece when he was three years old. He attended St. George Orthodox church in Kalymnos where he was an altar boy and an Assistant Psalti's for many years.

After completing studies in Mechanical Engineering, Nick returned to the USA to work in Construction Management.

Nick says he is blessed with a loving family, wife Roslyn and their sons Themelis and Stavros. They have been a part of the St. Andrew Family for from the year 2000.

Nick strongly believes in keeping our Orthodox traditions and family values in our youth and looks forward to serving St. Andrew as a Parish Council member.
