Trip to Taylor, PA to venerate the Myrrh-Streaming icon of our Panaghia!

Wednesday, October, 2nd

Leaving Saint Andrew @ 4 pm

We're planning another trip to St. George's church in Taylor, PA on Wednesday, October 2nd to venerate the miraculous and myrrh streaming icon of our Panaghia. Everyone is invited! We had a wonderful experience last time. Here is a link which tells you some history and miracles of this wonder-working icon: <http://www.schwebster.org/sermons/2014-sermons/the-miracles-and-wonders-of-god-the-crying-icon-of-taylor-pa>

There is an Akathist every Wednesday which starts at 6 pm and lasts about 45 minutes or so. People are invited to venerate the icon and often, Father Mark, the priest at St. George, takes the icon out of its case and tilts the icon so the myrrh drips into people's hands. It really is something to experience.....
